DETAILED ACTION

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 63-65 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-11 of U.S. Patent No. 6,060,052. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the scope of the invention of 6,060,052 is broader so as to encompass the invention of the instant application. The instant invention includes the step of transducing the hematopoietic stem cells with a viral vector and where the viral vector encodes antisense or ribozymes. The specification of 6,060,052, at columns 5 and 15 for example, clearly shows that such an embodiment is embraced within the claims of 6,060,052.

Claims 63-65 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-14 of U.S. Patent No. 6,326,205. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the instant invention is embraced within the invention of 6,326,205. Both the instant application and the invention of the patent are drawn to the genetic modification of a population of stem cells. The invention of the patent is broader since it does not specifically requires cells to be introduced into a subject, however it does embrace such as evidenced at column 5 of the specification. The invention of the patent also does no specifically recite that the vector encode an antisense or ribozyme, but such is embraced as evidenced at column 15, for example.
